

Join Us for the Third Annual World Trade Week Luncheon May 17, 2019

Celebrate World Trade over Lunch with Tennessee’s Leaders in International Trade

The Tennessee District Export Council invites you to join us at a luncheon to celebrate Tennessee World Trade Week in Nashville on Friday, May 17, 2019. In 1935, President Franklin D. Roosevelt officially proclaimed World Trade Week as the third week of May. This national observance of the importance of international trade to the United States promotes the positive impact on economic development in the State of Tennessee. Lunch will be followed by a panel of our region’s Consul General’s from three of our largest trading partners

- Mr. Hiroyuki Kobayashi, Consul General of Japan in Nashville
- Mr. Javier Diaz de Leon, Consul General of Mexico in Atlanta
- Ms. Nadia Theodore, Consul General of Canada in Atlanta

Program Details

Date: Friday, May 17, 2019
 Time: 11:00-11:30am Registration and Networking
 11:30-1:00 pm Luncheon and Program
 Location: Baker Donelson Event Center
 211 Commerce St., Nashville, TN 37201
 Cost: $40
 Registration: <http://tndec.com/>

Tennessee World Trade Month May 2019

The Tennessee District Export Council, Tennessee International Trade Center, the U.S. Commercial Service, the Nashville Chamber of Commerce, and the Tennessee Department of Economic and Community Development celebrate international trade with over 20 events held across the state to assist small and medium size companies expand into new markets.

For More Information and Sponsorship Opportunities

Leslee Alexander at lalexander@tsbdc.org or Paul Bonovich at paul.bonovich@cisinc-usa.com

Connecting you to global markets.